|--------------------------|---|
| Strategy | We can name our top priorities and the next decisions that matter. |
| Sales | We have a repeatable way to track leads, follow up, and move opportunities forward. |
| Marketing | We know who we serve, what message we lead with, and how we promote consistently. |
| Operations | Core recurring work is documented with clear ownership and handoffs. |
| Customer Service | Customers receive consistent responses, escalation handling, and follow-up. |
| Financial Control | We monitor cash, key costs, pricing, and resource commitments before spending. |
| People / HR | Hiring, onboarding, role expectations, and performance processes are documented. |
| Automation | We have identified repetitive work that can be safely automated with human review. |
